McKinsey Weekend

October 6–8

Join us for a magical weekend at the Tree Hotel in the deepest forests of Norrland to explore the green re-industrialization of Sweden!

Experience first-hand how McKinsey partners with clients from the fast-growing sustainability industry through interactive problem solving and exciting site visits. We hope you will get to know us better through various fun and exciting social activities.

Apply by September 16

We welcome students pursuing a bachelor or a master degree of any discipline to apply.
